Jeanne Rust-Lester	LPC-1997	2005-0082	The professional owned an agency that provided treatment for eating disorders. The professional applied for an OBHL license to open a level II residential agency in another location. Prior to the level II agency license being issued, the professional admitted and treated 6 clients at her level II agency. Prior to the arrival of the OBHL surveyor, the professional and agency staff removed clients, client belongings and client records in order to conceal their admission and treatment prior to licensure of the agency. OBHL assessed a $15,250 penalty for admitting and treating clients prior to licensure being issued. The professional does not currently engage in any type of clinical practice or provide any type of clinical supervision.	Sanctions 08/01/08 Consent Agreement and Order: minimum 24 months probation; 3 semester graduate ethics course; upon return to clinical practice, must work only under clinical supervision for a minimum of 12 months.
Susan Bramlette	LMFT-10129	2008-0006	The professional was terminated from an agency for intentional or gross negligent breach of client confidentiality and unprofessional actions that resulted or might result in physical, professional and/or emotional harm to fellow employees, and/or cause damage to the agency. The professional was terminated from another agency for constant personal conflict between new staff employees, failing to appropriately close client files and failing to complete any authorized client sessions.	Sanctions 08/01/08 Consent Agreement and Order: License released from suspension and immediately expires. Had the professional maintained an active license, the license would have been placed on a minimum of 12 months probation requiring the completion of a 3 semester graduate ethics course and a minimum of 12 months clinical supervision.
Nancy Friends	LPC-1711 LISAC-0856	2008-0107	The professional disclosed confidential information regarding a former client to a supervisee.	Sanctions 08/01/08 Consent Agreement and Order: Order of Censure.
Anne Carver	LPC-11752 LISAC-10391		The professional self-reported an involuntary admission to a local hospital.	Sanctions 08/01/08 Interim Consent Agreement and Order: The professional shall not practice under her licenses until such time the Board approves reinstatement of her licenses.

Janet G. Carista	LPC-1685	2009-0005	The professional reported that she worked at an agency from 12/04 until 01/07, when a medical issue prevented her from practicing. In 01/07, the agency reported that they terminated the professional due to the professional's actions that resulted in the negligent care of clients. The professional disputed the basis of her termination. In 06/08, the professional advised the Board that she could no longer practice due to her ongoing medical issues. The professional also advised the Board that her ongoing medical issues prevented her from fully participating in the processing of Complaint No. 2006-0030.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: The professional shall not practice under her license until such time the Board approves reinstatement of her license.
Ernest Cofrances	LPC-0899	2006-0099	The professional provided Client and Partner 7 sessions of couple's counseling without developing any treatment planning documentation. The professional provided a letter to Partner summarizing the couple's counseling that contained confidential information regarding Client. The professional failed to obtain Client's written authorization to release Client's confidential information. The type of session the professional recorded on the progress notes did not always correspond with the type of session the professional recorded on the billing records. The professional's informed consent for treatment documentation was inadequate.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: minimum 12 months probation; 3 clock hours in clinical documentation; 6 clock hours in ethics.
Lisa Dodd	LPC-10205	2006-0094	On 10/18/05, the professional conducted a crisis risk evaluation of Son, after receiving consent from Mother. The professional failed to retain Mother's consent for treatment regarding Son. Mother then telephoned and asked the professional to write a letter summarizing Son's evaluation. The professional did not document Mother's telephone conversation. On 10/19/05, the professional made a telephonic report to CPS, but failed to submit a written CPS as e required within 72 hours. The professional did not document a telephone conversation with the CPS worker. On 10/26/05, Father made a written request for Son's entire clinical record. The professional failed to provide Son's entire record in response to this written request and only provided the 10/18/05 risk assessment evaluation note.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: Order of Censure.
Rosemarie Ludwig	LPC-0399	2007-0060	In 1989, the professional obtained a Ph.D. in Philosophy from Columbia Pacific University ("CPU"), which is not a regionally accredited institution. Since 1989, the professional has been in private practice with Husband, a licensed psychologist, with a business name of Phoenix Psychological Services, P.C. In 08/06, the professional managed the private practice and provided the large majority of services offered through Phoenix Psychological Services. Husband worked only 4 hours a week at the practice. Client contacted the agency and requested an appointment with Husband. The professional offered to see Client. The professional saw Client for 1 session in 08/06. The professional failed to obtain a written informed consent for treatment signed by Client. None of the forms the professional used in her private practice identified her as a LPC. When the professional co-signed forms signed by Client, the professional included her Ph.D. credential rather than her LPC designation. The professional failed to take appropriate precautions to ensure that clients were provided clear written information regarding her licensure status as an LPC.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: minimum 24 months probation; 3 semester credit hour graduate level ethics course; minimum 24 months clinical supervision; provide the Board within 30 days with private practice forms that accurately reflect the professional's licensure status and clearly note that the professional is providing services as a LPC.

Linda Marks	LAC-12654	2007-0109 2009-0010	When the professional submitted her LAC application in 05/06, the professional omitted an involuntary termination for misconduct and a position she held at another agency in 2005. The Board licensed the professional subject to compliance with a consent agreement in 04/07. The professional was employed at a third agency and resigned. The professional had performance problems at this third agency, including submitting appropriate documentation in a timely manner; boundary issues with clients; leaving client files unsecured; not initiating treatment in a timely manner and letting groups out of session early. The professional had an approved clinical supervisor who terminated his professional relationship because the professional was unable to maintain her agreement for supervision. In 06/08, the Board opened a second complaint against the professional for non-compliance of the 04/07 Consent Agreement and Order.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: The professional shall not practice under her license until such time the Board approves reinstatement. Within 6 months, the professional must take and pass a 3 semester credit hour graduate level ethics class. Upon reinstatement of her license, the professional must receive a minimum of 12 months of clinical supervision.
David Olivarez	LISAC-10277	2009-0007	In 1988, the professional was convicted of manslaughter, which was related to a DUI and resulted in the death of an individual. In 02/07, the professional was arrested for domestic violence. In a response to the Board, the professional misrepresented the details regarding the domestic violence incident. In 03/07, the professional misrepresented to Justice Services his drug/alcohol use and his alcohol use during the domestic violence incident. In 11/07, the professional was arrested for DUI. The professional failed to disclose his 1988 DUI history or his 2007 domestic violence arrest or his participation in a diversion program during his substance abuse screening and evaluation. Based upon his failure to disclose, the professional received a 16-hour education program instead of a 36-hour education program.	Sanctions 09/05/08 Consent Agreement and Order: minimum 24 months probation; 6 clock hours regarding family violence; a minimum of 24 months clinical supervision; attend an AA recovery program a minimum of 3 times per week; enter into and successfully complete an impaired professional's program.

Rayne Norton	LMSW-11723	2005-0142 2007-0049	In 06/05, the professional self-reported to the Board that she had engaged in a dual relationship with a 19-year-old male client when she allowed the client to live with her and her family for 4 days. The 19-year-old male was a Value Options client. Value Options prohibits personal relationships with clients. The professional resigned in lieu of being terminated. In 03/06, the professional spoke to a police department on behalf of client, who had violated probation. The professional made a point to keep informed about the client's status by speaking with the client's counsel, as well as the prosecution regarding alternatives to prison. In 06/06, the client received intensive probation and the professional created a treatment plan for client, which included living at the professional's home, enrolling client in a community college, and arranging for client's therapy. In 08/06, the professional contacted client's probation officer. When the probation officer did not appear to take her seriously, the professional stated, "I am so angry I want to take you down."	Sanctions 09/05/08: Board Order: a minimum of 6 months suspension; during suspension, obtain a psychological evaluation, take and pass a 3 semester credit hour graduate level ethics course, and reimburse the Board for investigative costs in the amount of $9,929.54. Upon reinstatement: minimum 24 months probation; minimum 24 months clinical supervision; shall not provide clinical supervision while under probation. Review and Rehearing Board Action 10/31/08: The Board reduced the investigative cost assessment to a total of $5,573.44. 01/21/09: Superior Court issued order staying Board ordered suspension pending appeal, with all other requirements of the Board Order to remain in effect.
Laurie Lageman	LPC-0233	2005-0143	In 1994, the professional subcontracted with an agency to provide employee assistance counseling services. The professional provided EAP services to clients from a home office, including having clients wait for appointments in her home. Family members sometimes interrupted sessions.
